Problem 7.3.   Find the equilibrium points (there are two) and classify them using linearization. Then draw the phase portrait of the system. On the phase portrait, mark the location and indicate the nature of each equilibrium point.